MiX Telematics Group and its South African Subsidiaries

As required in terms of section 51 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act No 2 of 2000
(the “Act”)

Preamble

The Act seeks to give natural and/or juristic persons the right of access to records held by either a private or public body, subject to certain limitations, in order to enable them to exercise or protect their rights.

Section 51 of the Act obliges private bodies to compile a manual which would assist a person to obtain access to information held by such a private body and stipulates the minimum requirements a manual has to comply with. In terms of section 51(2) of the Promotion of Access to Information Act (the “Act”), this manual will be updated as and when the need arises.

Objectives of Manual

The objectives of the Manual are:

- To provide a list of all records held by MiX Telematics (“Company”);
- To set out the requirements with regard to who may request information in terms of the Act as well as the grounds on which a request may be denied;
- To define the manner and form in which a request for information must be submitted;

The reference, in this Manual, to any information in addition to that specifically required in terms of Section 51 of the Act does not create any right or entitlement (contractual or otherwise) to receive such information, other than in terms of the Act.

The Act provides that a person may only request information in terms of the Act, if the information is required for the exercise or protection of a right. Information will therefore not be furnished unless a person clearly provides sufficient particulars to enable the Company to identify the right the requester is seeking to protect as well as an explanation of why the requested information is required for the exercise of protection of that right.
