

Cheers to a Happy New Year!

It's that time of year, the time to chill out, have some fun, celebrate the good times, celebrate smashing through the hard times and to plan your awesomeness for 2014.

Now we all know that there aint no party like a New Year's party, so let's simply sort the who, how, where, what and why!

You'll need good mates, good tunes, good grub and some cheese for all your good photo ops.

The "Where?" is up to you. Some say it's not about where you are, but rather who you're with. But just in case you were wondering where the hot and happening events are, check out what's cracking coastal or concrete:

If you're road tripping your way through your holiday, remember the KitKat rule: "Have a break". Pedal to the metal? Nah, you've been rushing all year! Take it easy out there. Holidays are all fun and games, but don't get too silly this season.

Don't drink and drive, don't overdo it, and when in doubt, don't.

It's been awesome keeping it real, keeping in touch and keeping it simply sorted. We rocked 2013 and our New Year's resolution is to keep your cars safe throughout 2014. So, whatever you do, wherever you are and whoever you're with, have a good one!

See you in 2014!
